DISCIPLINE CODE

Gentlemen,

The sport of football cannot be played by just anyone. We are all born with different degrees of ability. What we can do is train our bodies both physically and mentally to peak conditions. It will take something extra to become part of “us”. It takes sacrifice, hard work, desire physical and mental toughness, and above all a great amount of pride, dedication and unity.

In the following few pages you will find rules and regulations that you will be required to follow. If you cannot or will not follow these rules you will not be part of this football program.

I will enforce these rules consistently and fairly. No one player is indispensable. It is up to the seniors to set an example for the underclassmen to follow.
